5. Click Next.

6. Enter your name.

7. Next, enter your date of birth. Then, your gender. Then, mobile number or email.

The screenshots show the following steps in a mobile application:

- Birthday: A date picker showing "Apr 05 1989". Below it are other date options: "May 06 1990" and "Jun 07 1991". A blue "Next" button is at the bottom.
- Gender: A selection screen with "Female" (radio button selected), "Male", and "Custom". A note says "You can change who sees your gender on your profile later." A blue "Next" button is at the bottom.
- Mobile Number: An input field labeled "Enter Your Mobile Number". A note says "Mobile Number". A blue "Next" button is at the bottom.
- Email Address: An input field labeled "Enter Your Email Address". A note says "Email Address". A blue "Next" button is at the bottom. A numeric keyboard is overlaid on the screen.

8. Next, create a password. Be sure it is at least six numbers, letters, and punctuation marks and it's not a password that can be easily guessed.

9. Next, complete your sign up.

10. Then, Facebook will ask if you would like to see who you already know that's on Facebook. This is just seeing who in your contacts are on Facebook.

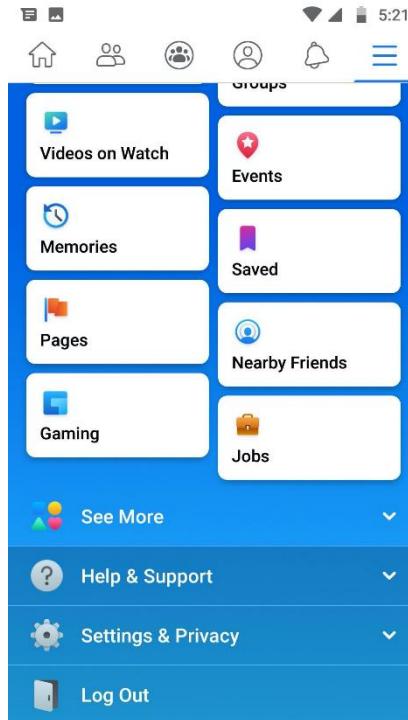

11. This is your home screen. From here you can create a post, upload a profile picture, send friend requests, and see the group pages you have joined, notifications, as well as your profile and the settings page.

Change Profile Settings

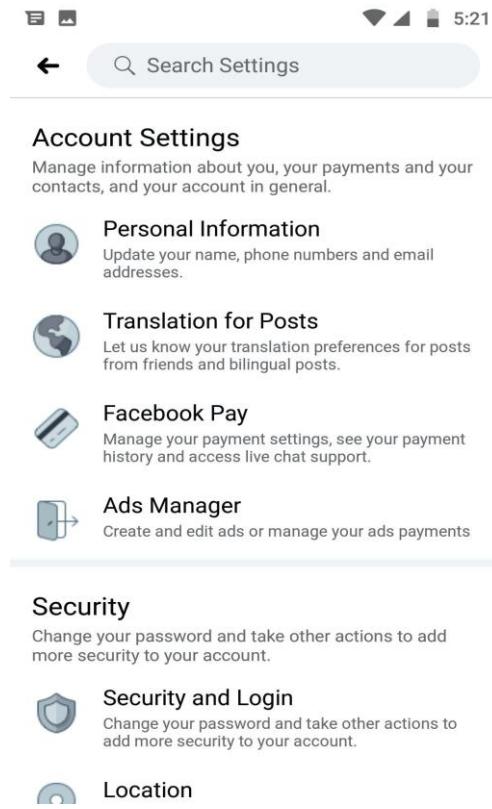

1. To change your profile settings, click “Settings & Privacy.”

2. Then, scroll down to “Settings”. You will then be in your account settings. There are many possibilities here.

3. This is the settings page, where you will be able to change any settings you would like for your page. Here is where you will be able to make your changes. Choose From any of the following options.
